Anna is the founder and managing partner of Eurasian Investments LLC, a consulting company that focuses on investments between Russia and the United States.

Anna's professional background is business and international law. She served as in-house corporate counsel for several state-owned enterprises in her native Russia and took them through privatization process. She was among the first generation of Russian lawyers that worked with foreign direct investments. She taught business, environmental law and consumers' rights at the Urals State University of Economics before she moved to the United States.

Anna holds her law degree with focus on business law from Urals State Legal Academy, and Masters of International Law and Business (LL.M) from the University of Arizona and is admitted to practice in the U.S. Court of International Trade, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, U.S. District Court, District of Arizona, Supreme Court, State of Arizona.

Anna is passionate about her cross-cultural work with investors and start-up companies. She strongly believes that success of joint ventures largely depends on parties' ability to communicate and working together through their differences. A certified mediator and dispute resolution consultant, she is currently developing her global negotiation and conflict management practice that will serve investment community in creating better relationships world-wide.

Recent graduate of Thunderbird Executive MBA program, Anna resides in Scottsdale, Arizona and leads her teams in the Urals Region, Russia and the U.S.
