

Profile

Tatiana is graduated from le Mirail Jean Jaurès University in France, Toulouse. She is a specialist of French and Russian linguistics.

Tatiana worked as a French and Russian language instructor and pedagogical advisor during last 7 years at EADS Airbus company in France.

She was also making conferences to present and to explain Russian Culture to people coming from different countries.

She is currently installed in Phoenix area and would like to exchange ideas and experience on various cultural matters, mainly interested in on-line education.

She participates with Arizona State University RusTech project as a Volunteer involved in research of international partnerships with various foreign universities.

Tatiana interests are Online Education, Education programs, Foreign Languages, International cooperation, Interculturality. She is bilingual French, Russian and fluent English.