Russian Tea Parties 2nd Roundtable!

RUSSIAN-SPEAKING AMERICA:

What Happens to Russians When They Move to the US?

August 17th, 2012, 6-8 pm
Four Points Sheraton Hotel, 1333 Rural Rd. • Tempe, AZ 85281
SE corner of Rural Rd and Apache Rd.

Attendees include 16 faculty members from Kazan National Research Technological University on a training program at ASU organized by RUSTEC!

Welcome by Anatoli Korkin, Associate Research Professor
ASU Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry

Introductory remarks by Alexei LALO, ASU Melikian Center for Russian, Eurasian and East European Studies, followed by OPEN DISCUSSION.

The Roundtable will be held in the ENGLISH language, with some consecutive translation and summaries in RUSSIAN. Let’s build a bridge between Russian and American culture!

We encourage EVERYONE to participate and speak up. TEA and COOKIES will be served!

“ARE YOU GANGSTERS? – NO, WE ARE RUSSIANS!”

• How Russians Turn into Americans: Assimilation/Melting Pot, Brighton Beach-type Circus or Multiculturalism? Is There Such Thing as Russian Diaspora in the US?

• Do Russians Get a Culture Shock: Problems and Difficulties of New Arrivals / Settlers

• Russian-American Women v. Russian-American Men: Gender Differences in Assimilation.